ANOTHER FATAL AUTO ACCIDENT

Emmitsburg Man Receives Fatal Injuries in Accident on Mountain at Pen Mar. Wife and Sister-in-law also Hurt.

As the result of a serious automobile accident at Pen Mar about 9:30 o'clock Thursday night, William Stauffer is in the Washington County Hospital, in a dying condition, and his wife and sister are at the Mount View Hotel suffering from serious injuries.

Thursday evening the party autoed from Emmitsburg, their home, to Pen Mar, to spend the evening and were returning home when the accident occurred. Running down the hill leading to Lake Royer and when nearing the Melvue Hotel around a sharp curve Mr. Stauffer, who was running the machine, lost control, and the large touring car dashed down a 35 foot embankment of rocks completely demolishing the car and with the fatal results already stated.

The car was not running at a high rate of speed when the accident occurred but it is thought the light shining against some object, was mistaken for the road and before the mistake could be overcome the car made the fatal plunge carrying its three passengers with it, down the rock-ribbed embankment.

As soon as the accident was discovered Dr. Beck, a physician at Blue Ridge Summit, was hastily summoned and rendered medical and surgical aid to the injured. The ladies though not hurt as seriously as Mr. Stauffer received many painful bruises and cuts about their heads and bodies. Mr. Stauffer suffered an injured spinal column and it is feared that his back is broken. His head is badly cut and he may have suffered a fractured skull. His leg is fractured and it is feared that he is injured internally.

He was taken to Hagerstown on an excursion train accompanied by Dr. Beck and removed to the hospital.

On arriving at the hospital an investigation showed that his injuries would prove fatal and a minister was summoned to the side of the dying man. Everything possible was done by the doctors that in any way would alleviate the suffering of the injured man and though he retained consciousness little hope was held for his recovery.

The entire population on the mountain was aroused by the news of the affair and hundreds hastened to the wreck, while others assisted in removing the injured to the hotel and making them as comfortable as possible.

HOWARD H. SLAYBAUGH

Howard H. Slaybaugh, a well known resident of Center Mills, died at eleven o'clock Thursday morning at the home of Cyrus Starnor on the Carlisle road between Center Mills and Idaville, aged 73 years.

Mr. Slaybaugh had been in Idaville on Wednesday morning and was returning home when he became ill. George Himes, a neighbor of Mr. Starnor, saw Mr. Slaybaugh driving alone in a buggy and noticed there was something wrong. He stopped the horse and got into the vehicle, taking the sick man to the Starnor home where physicians were summoned but Mr. Slaybaugh did not recover consciousness and died within twenty four hours. Apoplexy was given as the cause of death.

He leaves his wife and three children, Mrs. John Smith, of route 2, Aspers; Mrs. James McGonegal, of Carlisle; Crist Slaybaugh, of Aspers; William Slaybaugh, at home; Mervin Slaybaugh, of Heidlersburg; Garfield Slaybaugh, of near Biglerville. He also leaves thirteen grandchildren.

Funeral at ten o'clock Sunday morning at Bethlehem church, conducted by Presiding Elder Coulson and Rev. Mr. Eckert. Interment at the church.

MRS. NAYLOR

Mrs. Naylor died at the home of her son, Frank Naylor, in Biglerville on Wednesday, aged 85 years. She had been a resident of Biglerville for only a few months.

Funeral Saturday leaving her late home about seven o'clock in the morning. Interment at Latimore.

MANY AT BASE BALL BANQUET

Close of Successful Season Celebrated by Players and Fans with Banquet. Many Good Speeches after Large Supper.

As a fitting close to a successful season the players and fans of the Sunday School Base Ball League held a rousing banquet at Raymond's Restaurant on Thursday evening.

Three large tables were prettily laid and thirty three banqueters enjoyed a delicious supper which was nicely served. Every team in the League was represented and there were a number of the fans present who had followed the progress of the season from start to finish.

After enjoying the five course supper I. L. Taylor called for the toasts. A number of the speakers were unusually happy in their remarks and for an hour or more those who were fortunate enough to get to the affair enjoyed the talks by managers, players and others. Laughter and applause followed each other rapidly and the event was a decided success insuring its establishment as an annual affair.

Among the speeches called for by Mr. Taylor, the toastmaster, were the following: "The Troubles of a President," John H. Raymond; "How it Feels to be a Champion," John Rupp; "Outlaws," Luther McDonnell; "The Three Mile Limit," Harry Breighner; "Rufus Bushman as Property Man," William Allison; "How to Play Short Stop," Harry E. Bough; "Down in the Cellar," John W. Brehm. Among those who gave short talks were J. A. Apple, Harry Gettleb, James Elliott, Joseph Bayly, Rufus Bushman, Paul Oyler, William Goldman, and several others.

The tie between St. James and Catholics is scheduled to be played off at 4:30 this afternoon.

NEW OXFORD GIRL ELOPES

Miss Bertha Smith Leaves Home Quietly and is Married. Newspaper of the Town Gives Story in Detail.

Following the publication of the marriage license granted to Ernest Moller and Bertha Smith, at Ellicott City, Md., on Tuesday, the New Oxford Item, this week, hints at a romance, as follows:

During the summer Miss Bertha Smith, operator at the local telephone exchange for several years, visited friends at Hagerstown for a week or ten days, among whom was the family of M. P. Moller, the pipe organ manufacturer, for whom Miss Bertha's father, the late Oliver A. Smith, was traveling salesman. During her stay there she met Ernest Moller, superintendent of the Crawford automobile and bicycle work, located in connection with the organ factory. It seems to have been the old song of "love at first sight." Young Moller, after Bertha's return home, made several trips here, stopping at a hotel and remaining for a week or more at a time, paying friendly visits to Miss Bertha's home.

Last week he came to town and visited the house as before and nothing unusual was noticed in their actions. About 9 p. m. Friday while the rest of the family were seated on the front porch, Miss Bertha and Mr. Moller occupied the parlor. Some time later one of the family went into the parlor and found that it was empty, and as they did not go out the front door a closer search was made, and it was then discovered that Miss Bertha had secretly gathered up most of her wearing apparel and other belongings, and with her friend had passed out through the back yard and stable to the alley where there was an automobile in a hiding, which carried them away, since which time nothing has been heard of the pair as to their whereabouts.

Why this action was taken on the part of Miss Bertha and friend, cannot be understood, as she has always had a pleasant and agreeable home, and there was no objection to her friend who made many visits there and was always pleasantly entertained. Possibly the desire for a romance was at the bottom of the escape.

Since the above has been in type a letter has been received from the couple from Baltimore, stating that they were married, but giving no further particulars.

RUNAWAY

A four horse team left standing in front of the power house on North Washington street this morning took fright at a Western Maryland train and three of the horses ran to the Eagle Hotel corner where they were caught. The damage done consisted of a broken tongue and torn harness. The team was owned by Paxton Bigham.

TONIGHT

"The Cowboy Preacher" will be seen for the first time at the Wizard Theatre this evening. The unique Western band that is being carried as an added feature, is making a big "hit" both in the street parade and the free concert at night in front of the theatre. It is hardly necessary to say much about the play other than that it had a run at the Tremont Theatre, New York City, last season, for three months. This is its first road tour, and the piece is being played by the original cast, original scenery, and electrical effects are also carried, so the patrons of the local play'ers are expecting "some" show.

CASHTOWN

Cashtown, Sept. 6—On Monday morning the school bells were heard over the country again. It only seems but a short time since we heard the bell at the close of last season.

Some of our farmers are through sowing wheat, others are busy sowing and some are still ploughing and getting the fields ready.

Ground hogs are very plentiful through this section. They are doing much damage to the fruit trees and they are digging up the fields with holes so that it is dangerous for horses. Some of our crack snots are interested in the hunting of these hogs and are trying to get rid of some of the animals.

Charles E. Kuhn left on Tuesday for Rochester, New York, to work in the fruit business for Floyd Thorne. It will not be long till quite a number of our men will leave for different places to work in the apple business.

James Kuhn, near this place, found a pocket book with some money in it. A. D. Henry lost a fine cow by death on Wednesday night.

Herman Rife had his horses in pasture, among them being a colt which Mr. Rife found had its front leg broken near the pasture. Dr. Hudson was called and set the leg and thinks it will come right.

The plant and flower exhibit to be given under the auspices of the Civic League on Saturday the 7th, will be held in the park if conditions are exactly right, but if weather should be unfavorable the display will be in the league rooms. All persons interested are invited to bring plants or cut flowers and all exhibitors have the privilege of selling any plants of which they care to dispose. Exhibit free.

We are glad to learn that Mrs. Martha Bieseker who has been sick for several weeks is improving.

MILLINERY: from September 10th, Mrs. Reile will be located with her millinery store in the basement of the First National Bank, formerly occupied by Raymond's Restaurant, where she will be glad to receive her friends and patrons.

HILLES DEMANDS TAFT ELECTORS

Asks Removal of T. R. Men in Pennsylvania.

WANTS RESIGNATIONS QUICKLY

Letter to State Chairman Assails Flinn as Working to Go to Senate and of Vicious Motives.

New York, Sept. 6.—Charles D. Hilles, chairman of the Republican national committee, has put squarely up to Henry G. Wasson, chairman of the Republican committee in Pennsylvania, the question of having the Republican electoral ticket in Pennsylvania purged of the candidates who refuse to support President Taft for re-election.

In a letter which Chairman Hilles has just sent to Mr. Wasson he calls upon the latter to telegraph each of the electors asking them to resign at once if they will not support Mr. Taft. The need of quick action, in order to make a proper campaign in Pennsylvania for the president, is strongly urged by Mr. Hilles. He assails the electors for remaining on the ticket when they favor Colonel Roosevelt, and especially in view of the latter's declaration that there would be two tickets in Pennsylvania.

Mr. Hilles makes the severest strictures on William Flinn, whom he terms the "head of the Republican secessionists in Pennsylvania." He says the Pittsburgh man is trying to dictate to the Republican state committee and that his "motives are as apparent as they are vicious." The accusation is made that Flinn is trying to destroy the Republican party in the nation while aiming to "sandbag" the Republicans of Pennsylvania into furthering his surreptitious design to break into the United States senate.

A significant statement by Mr. Hilles is a veiled hint that the Washington party might not secure a place on the official Pennsylvania ballot when application is made to the secretary of the commonwealth.

Senator Penrose conferred with William Barnes and other members of the national committee on the electoral tangle. Mr. Barnes is chairman of the advisory committee of the Republican national committee.

Speaking of the electors who will refuse to vote for Taft, Mr. Hilles says:

"From the standpoint of decency honor and morality, the Roosevelt electors should not defer their retirement from the Republican ticket another day. They should not force the Republican managers to appeal to the courts to compel them to withdraw."

"Colonel Roosevelt himself has stated that there should be separate and distinct electoral tickets on the Pennsylvania ballot, and if the electors in question are unable to recognize the justice of the demand that they retire from the Republican ticket it would seem that they should respect the expressed wish of the man whom they are prepared to support in the electoral college whether or not he should receive a majority of Republican votes."

"The Republican state committee, as a matter of honor and of duty to the party, and in the exercise of its legal and proper functions, should substitute immediately loyal men for those who will not vote for the Republican nominees."

FLEEING CYCLIST SHOT

Fatally Injured While Trying to Escape From Hold-Up Men.

Chicago, Sept. 6.—With a girl perched on the rear of his motorcycle, Roy Winkelman, seventeen years old, started out on a spin through the West Side parks.

They had been riding only a short time when three men ordered Winkelman to stop. He attempted to speed away, and one fatally shot him in the back. His companion escaped injury by jumping.

Park policemen caught three men after a chase, during which several shots were fired.

In a statement made to the police the men admitted they had pledged to take the girl away from her escort.

"We just wanted the girl," said one of the prisoners. "We had no intention of wounding Winkelman and did not intend robbing him."

TAFT STILL ON MOVE DESPITE LAME ANKLE

Sails For New London to Keep Waterways Engagements.

New York, Sept. 6.—Still nursing his lame right ankle, but determined to keep his engagement with the Atlantic Deep Waterways association at New London, Conn., President Taft left New York on the yacht Mayflower for a sail up Long Island sound.

C. P. Taft, the president's brother; Charles D. Hilles, chairman of the Republican national committee, and George R. Sheldon, its treasurer, accompanied him. The president held a long political conference with these three men. It was the first important political conference Mr. Taft has had in many weeks.

The president boarded the Mayflower in the Brooklyn navy yard and she steamed up the East river to the rear of the guns of half a dozen war vessels in the yard, while hundreds of Jackies in white lined the rails of the Mayflower and those of the warships.

Mrs. Taft came down from Beverly on the yacht.

Mr. Taft plainly showed the pain he felt from his injured ankle. At the Pennsylvania station he was taken by a wheel chair and elevator directly to a waiting automobile and had but a few steps to make. At the yard, however, he had to walk the Mayflower's gangplank, and he did it gingerly and with care.

Major Thomas L. Rhoads, the president's personal aide and physician, who accompanied him on the trip, declared that the ankle was so much better that Mr. Taft would be out enjoying his vacation next week.

WOMAN BURNED TO DEATH

With Arms Extended Upward, Sister Perishes in Convent Yard.

New York, Sept. 6.—With her arms extended upward in supplication, Sister Stephen, of the St. Joseph Roman Catholic convent, in Bayonne, stood in the yard of the convent with her clothing in flames and slowly burned to death before assistance got to her.

The sister was preparing the noon-day meal when the gas stove set fire to her clothing. Rushing into the back yard, she extended her arms in prayer while the flames enveloped her from head to foot.

Women on the opposite side of the street saw her and their screams attracted the attention of a man who was passing. Before he had covered half the intervening distance her strength failed and she sank slowly to her knees, still with uplifted hands.

As he reached her side she fell forward unconscious. Others summoned aid while he smothered the flames with a rug.

Under the administration of the doctor Sister Stephen recovered consciousness thirty minutes later. She died after suffering for two hours.

FEAR OF DENTIST KILLS

Girl Dies in Chair as Gas Was About to Be Administered.

York, Pa., Sept. 6.—Annie Henry, the fifteen-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elie Henry, died in a dentist chair as gas was about to be administered to her.

It is said that the fear of the pain caused the girl's death. Miss Henry was reluctant to have the aching tooth extracted.

Enthusiastically Cheer Bull Moose Leader.

HUGE CROWDS EVERYWHERE

Colonel's Reception in Minneapolis Surpasses Any Received in Past. Spoke to 50,000 at Fair Grounds.

St. Paul, Minn., Sept. 6.—Minnesota opened wide its arms to Roosevelt. By their enthusiasm and by the way they talked to and shouted for the colonel and by statements made in private by dozens of men who were interviewed, the people left no doubt in the mind of the political observer that they would cast the state's electoral vote without fail for the Roosevelt ticket in November. And from all surface indications it will be by no narrow squeak that the colonel will win.

"He will get two out of every three votes," said Hugh Halbert, chairman of the Progressive committee of fifty. "I was for Taft in the primaries," said H. F. Brown, a millionaire lumberman, who for fifty years has been a prominent citizen of the state and who participated in large financial affairs. "Now I am for Roosevelt. Nothing on earth can stop him."

When the colonel arrived at St. Paul a crowd of men and women greeted him that were packed into the station like sardines. The police kept a lane open through which the colonel and his escort passed. On his way to the St. Paul hotel the street was lined with working people. The space in front of the hotel was densely packed. Cheer after cheer went up for the Progressive leader. "We want Teddy!" was the usual cry.

From the hotel Mr. Roosevelt was driven to the Minneapolis state fair grounds, where he addressed some 50,000 people. He was then whirled away in an automobile to Minneapolis.

At that point the colonel was given a reception surpassing any the city has extended to him in the past. Thousands upon thousands literally swarmed on both sides of the streets through which he passed to the West hotel, where a luncheon was given in his honor.

"We're with you, Teddy. We want you."

"We'll put you back in the White House," were some of the cries distinguished above the uproar.

When the colonel left the hotel the people waiting for him in the broiling sun cheered him again. He was entertained at a so-called "farm dinner" at the Minneapolis fair grounds and spent the time remaining before his departure in discussing politics with callers.

His reception at the Minneapolis fair grounds was most enthusiastic. The people packed themselves like sardines around the stand from which the colonel addressed them. Men and women tried to grasp his hand. One old farmer timorously reached out and touched his foot. Many could not hear him, and some of those who failed to hear him shouted: "Come on back to us, Teddy."

"I'm coming back," he returned. "Give me a show."

"We're going to elect you, Teddy," shouted one farmer.

"Illinois is with you, Teddy," exclaimed a farmer from that state.

"I hope so," was the colonel's response.

TO GET SILVER SERVICE

New Battleship Pennsylvania to Receive State's Silver.

Harrisburg, Pa., Sept. 6.—Governor Tener notified Secretary of the Navy Meyer that the silver service presented by the state to the cruiser Pennsylvania, now the Pittsburgh, should be transferred to the new battleship Pennsylvania when commissioned.

The service cost more than $20,000 and was presented in accordance with an act of the legislature of 1902. It is now on the cruiser, which is in Pacific waters.

It is probable that the next legislature will add to the service some additional testimonial to the new war ship. The subject will be brought to the attention of the general assembly.

HELD ON EXTORTION CHARGE

New York Alderman and an Evangelist Under $10,000 Bail.

New York, Sept. 6.—After being locked up all night, unable to obtain bail, Percy L. Davis, an alderman, and Eben J. Owens, an evangelist, were arraigned in police court and held in $10,000 bail for examination.

They are accused of endeavoring to extort $5000 from Mrs. Eva B. Carroll for the purchase of an alleged affidavit reflecting on her character.

Viola Dawson, formerly Mrs. Carroll's maid, was arrested as a material witness. The affidavit in question purported to have been made by her.

Arrest Anarchists For Plot.

Vienna, Sept. 6.—Four anarchists have been arrested at Muggia, near Trieste, on suspicion of plotting against the life of Archduchess Josefa, widow of Archduke Otto, who died in 1906.

JUST MATTER OF ECONOMY

Sometimes Expensive Materials Are Not a Necessity or Even of the Best Worth.

The girl whose skilled fingers add the dainty touches to her wardrobe, instead of paying for them ready-made, may find the experience of a sister needle woman valuable in preventing a bad mistake. An ambitious little maiden had just purchased some handsome plain cream silk net for a guimpe with sleeves and was turning away to seek the counter where chiffon for lining it could be purchased when a friend at her elbow remarked: "Why don't you just use plain cream colored cotton net of a fine quality for the lining? My dressmaker advised it, and it gives a much more lacy effect."

No sooner said than done. The cotton net was purchased and carried home, and was cut out exactly the same as was the silk net. The guimpe was an entire success, so far as appearance went. It fitted well, and had a very good effect with the costume of cream colored cloth. But it had not been worn three times when its owner saw, with dismay, that the edges of the silk net, at arm's eye, at elbow, and where it joined the collar, were fraying out, inch lengths of the heavy silk thread standing out from the goods in every direction, though she had allowed ample at the seams to prevent any such thing.

On examining it, she discovered that while the silk net is finely woven, and will not stretch perceptibly, net of cotton is quite the opposite in weave, and stretches decidedly. It had stretched, in this case, putting all the strain on the silk net, which had yielded "all along the line." It had to be darned down on the cotton net, with sewing silk, and little tucks had to be taken in the cotton net to keep even that daring from giving out.

HAVE THE MEAL IN THE OPEN

For Warm Weather Nothing is More Enjoyable, and It May Be Made Most Pleasant.

The alfresco meal in summer is the joy of the modern enthusiast of fresh air, and hostesses with tree-shaded gardens, are often searching for some novel way of entertaining their guests out of doors. An effective luncheon or dinner may be arranged beneath a tree by the simple method of building a circular shelf around the trunk, which will serve as a table.

Chinese lanterns and appropriate flags may decorate the tree. Miniature baskets containing flowers can be suspended from the tree, and each guest who is asked to take one of these flowers will find a corresponding bloom at his or her plate. The shelf should be massed with floral decorations, such as sweet peas and appropriate greenery.

If the meal is to be a cold lunch, the hanging baskets can be filled with appetizing sandwiches, stuffed eggs, and other delicacies. Little baskets of strawberries with sugar and cream should be found at each place, and each individual hostess will use her ingenuity to devise some novelty in serving the food she offers to her guests.

WORKED NEW VACATION IDEA

Western Woman "Hired Out" to Her Husband, and is Enthusiastic Over the Result.

The following letter was written by a woman who lives on a farm in Wyoming:

"To begin with, then, I'm a rancher's wife, and was a farmer's daughter, so I know what it means to get up early and work till late. I've read a great deal about vacations, but not much about vacations for the woman on the ranch.

"Most women who live on a ranch know something about horses, and can harness and drive a team. Now every one knows that to people who have always worked with their hands idleness is not rest, and that recreation comes quicker and surer from a change of work; so I 'hired out' to my husband.

"We have 75 acres of alfalfa, and here in the west men are scarce and wages are high, so I hired a girl to do the housework and take care of the children, while I donned a pair of overalls, a jumper, a broad-brimmed hat and a pair of stout gloves, and went forth to take my vacation.

"The first day I mowed, and the first night I kicked levers and drove horses all night. I wasn't so enthusiastic the second morning, but I mowed some more, and raked some, and that night I slept; and I slept every night that followed during the harvest, for I 'stayed with it' till the hay was in the stack, doing team work altogether, and when we were through my husband said I was 'the best man on the job.'"

"I was decidedly a better woman, for I had gained five pounds of flesh, stronger nerves, harder muscles, and a coat of tan that hasn't all worn off yet.

"I told the girl that I was not to be consulted about anything, so I shifted the whole responsibility of the household and did just as the men did; washed, ate my meals, and then rested till time to start to work again.

"My girl cost me four dollars per week and I made $12, which left me a clear gain of eight dollars per week in cash, besides the other good things. I felt so rested when I took up the reins of the household again that what had before been a task was now a pleasure. Really, it did seem good to cook a meal once more, and I had not thought it possible."—Woman's Home Companion.

Locomotive's Diet.

Young Freddie is a natural student and observer, and he is especially interested in railway matters. The other day, waiting with his mother in a train mysteriously "held up" at a wayside station, Freddie pondered: "Mamma, I guess this is where the engine gets its dinner. They feed it on coal, hot water and matches, and I guess they let it have all the hot air it wants for dessert."

No More Ruining Sores

The People's Drug Store Sells an Ointment Called San Cura That is a Positive Cure.

It matters not how old, persistent or poisonous the sore is, San Cura Ointment, the powerful antiseptic, will draw out every particle of poison and promptly heal the sore.

So sure of this are the owners, the Thompson Medical Co., that they have authorized The People's Drug Store to return the purchase price of San Cura Ointment doesn't do all this paper says it will do. No fairer offer was ever made.

B. D. Duton, Titusville, Pa., says: "My arm was covered with twenty-four running sores and swollen to twice its natural size. San Cura Ointment removed the pain, drew out the poison and healed the arm in an incredibly short time. It is the greatest compound for healing I ever used."

The mighty healing powers of San Cura Ointment are little short of marvelous. It gives instant relief, and is guaranteed to cure salt rheum, eczema, bleeding, itching and protruding piles, ulcers, boils, carbuncles, chapped hands, and chilblains. For cuts, burns, scalds and bruises, it stops all pain quickly and heals promptly. 25c and 50 cents a jar. By mail on receipt of price, if your druggist is out of it or does not keep it.

SAN CURA SOAP

For tender, itching or irritable skin, wash with San Cura, the only antiseptic soap that soothes and heals, and kills all germs of disease. It will cure pimples, blackheads, and make the complexion clear and attractive. 25c at The People's Drug Store.

OHIO PROGRESSIVES NOMINATE TICKET

Arthur L. Garford Named For Governor.

Columbus, O., Sept. 6.—The Progressive state convention nominated Arthur L. Garford, of Elyria, O., for governor. The nomination was made by acclamation.

Mr. Garford is a manufacturer. He was a candidate for nomination in the Republican convention of July 2, but was defeated by Judge E. B. Dillon, of Columbus, who later resigned.

John L. Sullivan, Republican candidate for secretary of state, was nominated by the Progressives for the same office. He at once resigned as the Republican nominee. L. J. Tabor, of Belmont, was named for lieutenant governor.

Governor Johnson, of California, the vice presidential nominee, addressed the convention.

"Do not for a minute consider President Taft in this race," he said. "He is a negligible quantity. It is with shame as an American citizen that I say that today the most humiliating character in all American history is the president."

"The Republican national convention denied the right which the state of Ohio recently recognized, the right of the people to rule," declared the speaker, referring to the adoption of the initiative and referendum amendment to the Ohio constitution at Tuesday's special election.

Political bosses and machines, crooked business and unenforced legislation are condemned in the platform which was adopted.

Prohibition of child labor, the minimum wage for working women, prohibition of night work for women, an eight-hour day for women, an eight-hour day in continuous twenty-four hour industries, civil service for appointive state positions, the prevention of industrial accidents and the establishment of schools for industrial education were favored by the platform. Municipal home rule, the short ballot and a non-partisan judicial ballot were praised.

ENGINEER FELS TRAIN BANDIT

He Loots Seven Cars New Orleans.

KAD RELIEVED PASSENGERS

Robber Was on Point of Escaping When Blow on the Head Disabled Him.

New Orleans, Sept. 6.—A lone bandit held up a northbound express train of the Louisville & Nashville railroad near Michoud, twelve miles from here.

He looted the mail car and robbed the occupants of five Pullmans and a club car. Then, just as he was about to leave the tender of the locomotive his skull was fractured by a blow from a brass torch by Bear, the engineer, and he was captured.

The bandit was brought to New Orleans and placed in the Charity hospital. He said his name was Howard E. Edwards, and that his family lived in Jupiter, Fla. He gave the police information that is expected to lead to the early capture of three other members of a gang which is believed to have been responsible for a series of sensational train robberies in this section.

Edwards first crawled aboard the engine not far from New Orleans and held at bay the engineer and the fireman with two revolvers. He carried a small valise, in which he had dynamite and nitro-glycerine.

The train was stopped, and with the engineer and fireman preceding him Edwards rifled the mail car of all the registered mail. Then he took from the male passengers in five Pullmans and a club car all their valuables. He did not offer to molest the women. He got almost $1000 in cash. Then he marched the engineer and fireman back to the engine and ordered them to proceed.

After riding on the engine for about twenty-five miles Bear caught Edwards off his guard and struck him a terrific blow on the head with a brass torch, fracturing the base of the skull. Edwards fired one shot as he fell. It went wild. Bear proceeded to rain blows with the torch until he had the bandit unconscious.

When the train reached Bay St. Louis, Miss., the robber was taken off and placed in the charge of the railroad surgeons until the officers and detectives from New Orleans arrived there in a special train. Although Edwards was unconscious at intervals throughout the night, he gave the police valuable information concerning his alleged partners.

Kansas Train Robber Gets $20.

Osage City, Kan., Sept. 6.—A masked man boarded a Missouri Pacific passenger train here and robbed the conductor, the ticket auditor and six men in the smoker. Getting only $20, the robber jumped from the train when it stopped at a water tank and escaped.

T. R. LETTER TO CLAPP LOST

Depew, Hearst and Bliss to Figure in Contribution Probe.

Washington, Sept. 6.—The letter of Colonel Roosevelt to Senator Clapp, chairman of the sub-committee that is investigating campaign contributions, in reply to Senator Penrose and to John D. Archbold, is lost.

No trace of the letter, save the excerpts that appeared in press dispatches, can be found. Senator Clapp was not the least bit worried about the whereabouts of the Bull Moose epistle. He is anxious to read it before the committee meets the last of the month and would like to get started on it. It is feared that the letter is still chasing Mr. Clapp around in Vermont.

Senator Depew will be a witness before the Clapp committee. He will tell about the Harriman fund of $200,000 to the campaign of 1904.

The committee will ask William R. Hearst to turn over letters that he has to the committee, and will ask Cornelius N. Bliss, Jr., to testify. The senators think he might help locate written evidence of the Harriman and Standard Oil contributions.

Wiley's Accuser Resigns.

Washington, Sept. 6.—Dr. F. L. Dunlap, of the bureau of chemistry, and associate chemist under Dr. Harvey W. Wiley while the latter was chief of the bureau, resigned to accept a commercial position in Chicago. Dr. Dunlap came into public note as one of the authors of charges of irregularity against Dr. Wiley.

Explosions as Fire Destroys Oil Tanks

Rochester, N. Y., Sept. 6.—Sparks set fire to an oil plant and a series of explosions followed, blowing the dome off an 8000-gallon tank of benzine and destroying other tanks. Forty thousand gallons of benzine and oils were burned. The loss is about $50,000.

Public Dances in School House.

CONVICTS TO BUILD NEW JERSEY ROADS

Highway Commissioner to Try the Experiment.

Trenton, N. J., Sept. 6.—The state is to try an experiment in working convicts on the highways.

Road Commissioner Stevens has made formal application to the state prison labor commission to permit the employment of fifteen prisoners now in the state prison.

The commission is favorably disposed toward Commissioner Stevens' plans and will grant permission to have the prisoners taken out for work on highways.

The road selected for the work is the Burlington pike, from Burlington city to the Camden county line. The work of preparing quarters, providing machinery, bedding, cooking outfits, etc., is now under way, and it is expected that everything will be in readiness as soon as the state prison authorities act on the application.

It is the intention to place the men on a ration similar to that obtaining in the United States army.

TELLS OF MANY MURDERS

Says Bodies of the Slain Were Taken Through Tunnel to Cemetery.

Chicago, Sept. 6.—Frankie Ford, a former inmate of a West Hammond resort, was held awaiting a charge to being an accessory to the murder of a man named John Messmaker.

After hearing the woman's remarkable tale of murder and robbery in the resort, Thomas J. Johnson, county attorney, decided to bring the charge in order that she might be formally held.

Although the details of the tale were not made known, the coroner said that her tale was a strange one. Many men and women met death, he said, in the resort during the past two years. There is a secret tunnel from the place to a cemetery, and many bodies have been spirited away. A man known as "the man with the needle" was involved in the various murder plots, the girl asserts. For a few dollars he is said to have given the inmates injections of the fatal dose.

Wilson a 3 to 1 Favorite.

ECZEMA OF THE SCALP

After 20 Years Suffering Saxo Salve Brings Relief

"For 20 years I suffered with dry eczema of the scalp during which time I had tried every so called eczema remedy on the market without benefit. At last I saw Saxo Salve advertised and decided to try it and after using one tube, for the first time in 20 years I am free from that terrible itching and scaly dandruff. I wish every one suffering from eczema or other skin troubles only knew what a wonderful remedy Saxo Salve is."—T. F. Thompson, Hopkinsville, Ky.

Saxo Salve allays the frightful itching and burning of eczema, destroys the germs and heals the skin.

You cannot do better than try it for eczema, tetter, ringworm or any skin affection. We give your money back if Saxo Salve does not satisfy you. The People's Drug Store, Baltimore St. Gettysburg, Pa.
